

Anotation

Utilisation of Biblical stories in catecheses, religious education and in primary teaching of school children

Using methods of drama education in teaching and catecheses of primary school children

The aim of this Bc theses was to demonstrate the possibility to make the Biblical stories come alive by drama playig in the catechesis or lessons of religion and primary learning of younger children of the age 6–10.

To take into consideration the knowledge of the child psychological studies and think about the way of playing drama to allow children not only to experience a biblical story in an interesting and amusing way, but to find the message of God's word in the Holy Scripture for their own life.

Key words:

Biblical story, child, drama playing, religion, catecheses, primary learning